

Habitat Management Resources

Belding Wildlife Management Area Habitat History slide show

Young Forest Initiative Young Forest and Shrubland | a fresh way to create wildlife habitat

Checklist of wildlife in young forest stages NEC Field GuideREV6.indd

The "Clear Cut" Advantage for Wildlife and Forest Health brochure describing the need for shrublands and young forest for wildlife

Wildlife Habitat Management on Private Land - For private landowners interested in implementing habitat management projects to create or sustain young forest or shrubland habitat for wildlife, NRCS can provide technical and financial assistance to those wishing to conduct practices outlined in the USDA Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP).

Habitat Assessment Program and Resources | Audubon Connecticut Audubon's Foresters for the Birds program is coming to Connecticut. A list of endorsed foresters will be coming soon.

Master Woodland Manager - Connecticut Forest and Park Association year-long training program for woodland managers.

Master Wildlife Conservationist Program Free wildlife education program administered by CT DEEP

James L. Goodwin Master Naturalist - Connecticut Forest and Park Association administered by Connecticut Forest and Park Association and sponsored by the Friends of Goodwin Forest

Trails for People and Wildlife | State of New Hampshire Fish and Game – webinar and guidebook describing the impacts of trails on wildlife and how to locate trails that are less harmful.

Trails Can Harm Natural Resources — Northern Virginia Bird Alliance - more info on impacts to wildlife from trails

Connecticut's Endangered, Threatened, and Special Concern Species List 2015

Connecticut Botanical Society has a small grants program for habitat conservation

Small Grant Program | Land Trust Bird Conservation Initiative administered by the Cornell Lab of Ornithology to improve bird habitat