The Land Loss, Reparations & Housing Policy Conference

March 23-24, 2023 | Harvard Law | Boston College Law School

Supplemental Materials & Resources

- Full program booklet with speaker bios
- Supplemental slide deck for "Fireside Chat" Noon Keynote
 Provided by attorney George C. Fatheree III on the Bruce's Beach case
- Torn From The Land
 Associated Press Series on Black Land Loss
- Related Video: Thomas Wilson Mitchell, Property Law Scholar | 2020 MacArthur Fellow Mitchell, founder of BC Law's Initiative on on Land, Housing & Property Rights, is a property law scholar reforming laws and developing policy solutions addressing mechanisms by which Black and other disadvantaged American families have been deprived of their land, homes, and real estate wealth
- Related Video: Going, Going, Gone: New Tactic by Real Estate Investors Forcing Some New Yorkers from Their Homes
 TV station Spectrum News NY1's informative investigative report on partition action abuses in New York City
- Related Video: Black family's oceanfront land seized in 1929 returned with help from probono lawyer
 - Reuters covers George Fatheree's work on the Bruce's Beach case
- Related video: How Property Law Is Used to Appropriate Black Land
 VICE's segment on partition law abuse, which won the Peabody Award for journalism

Sponsor websites:

- Initiative on Land, Housing & Property Rights at BC Law
- Harvard Food Law and Policy Clinic
- Boston College Institute for the Liberal Arts
- ABA Section of State & Local Government Law
- The New School Institute on Race, Power and Political Economy